Macquarie US Large Cap Core Equity Fund Class I2 USD

ISIN: LU3053678184

A sub-fund of Macquarie Fund Solutions, a Société d'Investissement à Capital Variable ("SICAV").

The Management Company of the SICAV is FundSight S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

Objective: The Sub-Fund aims to provide Shareholders with capital growth and appreciation by investing in common stocks of large-capitalization companies.

Portfolio Securities: The Sub-Fund will aim to meet the investment objective under normal circumstances by investing primarily at least 80% of its net assets in equity securities, primarily in common stocks of large-capitalization companies.

The securities will principally be listed, traded, or dealt in on a Regulated Market in the US, although up to 10% of the net assets of the Sub-Fund may be invested in the securities of non-US issuers at any one time whose securities will be listed, traded, or dealt in on any Regulated Market in a member state of the OECD.

The Sub-Fund may invest up to 20% of its net assets in non-US companies directly, or indirectly through ADRs, GDRs, or EDRs.

Money market instruments, money market funds, bank deposits and time deposits qualifying as eligible asset may be held where this is considered appropriate by the Investment Manager. The Sub-Fund may hold ancillary liquid assets for not more than 20% of its total assets.

Investment Process: The Sub-Fund shall invest in companies that the Investment Manager believes are high-quality, have sustainable competitive advantages accompanied by financial strength and earnings stability, and have leading positions in their industries. Large-capitalization companies typically are companies with market capitalizations of at least $10 billion at the time of acquisition. The Sub-Fund shall invest in securities that have the potential for capital appreciation, or that the Investment Manager expects to resist market decline. Although the Sub-Fund primarily invests in securities issued by large-capitalization companies, it may invest in securities issued by companies of any size. The Sub-Fund may invest in securities of companies across the valuation spectrum, including securities issued by growth and value companies. Considering that long-term earnings potential relative to market expectations is an important component for stock performance, the Investment Manager balances a top-down (assessing the market environment) approach with a bottom-up (researching individual issuers) analysis when selecting securities for the Sub-Fund, and seeks to exploit what it believes to be catalysts for multi-year earnings growth in companies that it believes have strong or strengthening competitive advantages. Earnings catalysts are diversified across both thematic and company-specific projections.

Designed for: This Sub-Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 to 7 years.

Benchmark: S&P 500 Net Return Index. The benchmark is a performance reference and the Sub-Fund's underlying portfolio may differ significantly to the benchmark composition.

Further details of other categories of investments that the Sub-Fund may make are set forth in Annex A of the Prospectus for the Sub-Fund.

You can place orders to buy or sell Sub-Fund shares at any time. Orders received on any given Luxembourg business day before 12 p.m. Luxembourg time will be processed at that day's share price.

Income earned by the Sub-Fund is accumulated in the net asset value of this class and not distributed.

Risk and reward profile

Typically lower rewards

Typically higher rewards

The risk indicator is based upon historical data and may not be a reliable indication for the future risk profile of the Sub-Fund. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean a "risk free" investment. The Sub-Fund's risk level of 6 results from the following factors:

- The Sub-Fund is based on an investment philosophy focusing primarily on liquidity and capital preservation.
- The Sub-Fund invests across the full spectrum of global fixed income with an opportunistic approach, utilising a focus on high quality instruments which are traditionally very liquid.
- The Sub-Fund may have exposure to high yield credit securities where there is perceived relative value, including senior bank loans that qualify as money market instruments, that typically carry a higher risk than investment grade securities.

- The Sub-Fund may also have exposure to emerging market debt securities where there is perceived relative value, that typically carry a higher risk than debt securities issued in developed markets.

The value of an investment in the Sub-Fund can go up and down. When you sell your shares, they may be worth less than you paid for them. If your currency as an investor is different from the reference currency of the Sub-Fund, changes in currency exchange rates could reduce any investment gains or increase any investment losses.

The rating does not reflect the possible effects of unusual market conditions or large unpredictable events, which could amplify everyday risks and could trigger other risks. The Sub-Fund is subject to the following risks which may not be adequately captured by the indicator:

- Securities that combine the elements of debt and equity and the risks associated with both, including greater volatility than for straight bond investments with an increased risk of capital loss.
- Certain derivatives could increase the Sub-Fund's volatility or expose the Sub-Fund to losses greater than the cost of the derivatives.
- The value of the Sub-Fund's investments may be sensitive to changes in market perceptions of credit quality, both of individual issuers and of the credit markets in general.

For full details of the Sub-Fund's risks, please refer to the Prospectus available as mentioned in section "Risk Considerations".

Charges
